

ACEOT newsletter Nr. 19: Χριστός ἀνέστη! Lecture on 26 april

Χριστός ἀνέστη!

Christus resurrexit!

Христос воскрес!

Hristos a inviat!

Christ is risen!

Christus is opgestaan!

On 26 April 2012 Revd. Prof. Andrew Louth will deliver the next lecture of the series Eastern Orthodox Theology: A Personal Introduction. The lecture is entitled "Icons and Sacraments: the place of matter in the divine economy" and will start at 19:00 hours in room 13A-13 of the main building of the university. Entrance is free. On the ACEOT website you can find a description of the whole series and the texts of the previous lectures. A handout of this lecture is now available on the website. Please register beforehand through the website or by replying to this email.

On the ACEOT website you can also find a description of the next cycle of lectures entitled The Ways of Modern Orthodox Theology. Fr Andrew will treat in this monthly series modern Russian, Greek, Serbian, Rumanian and Western Orthodox theologians. We intend to make the whole course available as web lectures (on the site you can find links to the 'Hermitage web lectures'), so please consider a financial contribution to support this and other activities of ACEOT.
